More JC Fishermen Reported Back On Coast As Fishing Season Nears

With the approach of the west coast fishing season, indications point to a greatly increased number of Japanese Canadian commercial fishermen operating out of Port Edward, Rivers Inlet, Steveston and other B. C. coastal fishing towns. A report from Steveston guesses that there will be twice as many Japanese Canadian fishing boats up and down the rugged coastline as there were last year.

This estimate is strengthened by the evidence of a number of former fishermen from as far east as Ontario and Quebec returning to the coast specifically to fish. Higher price for the catch together with the news that those who were engaged in fishing last year were well rewarded and the fact that Japanese Canadians are no longer restricted as to type of fishing or area, are strong lures that are attracting the fishermen back.

Another indication that Japanese Canadian fishermen are flocking back is the busy hum of the coast shipyards handling an unprecedented order of fishing craft. Reports coming from Ted Otsu in Vancouver are that this is the result of the Japanese return.

Most of those who have gone or are going from Toronto are leaving their families behind and plan to return to their homes at the close of the season. Majority of them having families well settled here are undecided as to whether they will pull up roots again. Much seems to depend on how they make out this year, and they want to see housing and educational facilities for their children before they decide what to do.

PRICES UP

Like nearly everything else, the price of fishing boats has gone up. It is said that they are up ten percent from last year and that cost of gear has gone up even more, as much as 20 to 30 percent. With this increase in cost fishermen are negotiating for a higher price for fish through the Fishermen's Union.

Although the fishing season is just starting to roll with the fishermen preparing to head north where the run begins much earlier, the spring salmon season is already under way. Although catch is not heavy, prices are good with 30 cents per pound for red and 18 cents for white spring.

This year there will be quite a number of Japanese fishermen trolling for spring salmon along the West Coast. Only a few were engaged in this last year.

Another type of fishing which is relatively new to Japanese Canadians but which is reported as becoming increasingly popular, is halibut fishing. The halibut season opens on May 1.

Pleasant Intoxication . . .

From this high-perched aerie way on the third floor office, come some unexciting thoughts that I'm pretty sure will lull most of you into a deep slumber . . .

I think it's too nice of a Spring day to talk about the Trumans, the MacArthurs and the Stalins.

About the only sign of Spring I can see from out of the grimy window is a turquoise sky bursting with little wisps of clouds playing in its great expanse and blown by a tailwind into the wide blue yonder. (I wonder where they all disappear). The brilliant sheen of the noon-day sun is suffusing the lunch-hour in roseate, pastel hues. The high-tension wires which are on a level with the window is a royal roost for a squadron of birds. I don't know what kind they are.

This is an exciting time of the year. It is a time when all kinds of living things are pushing up, blooming, growing. It is a breathless, expectant month which is pregnant with possibilities and wild promises.

It is the time of year which brings a brighter color to feminine cheeks, a springier, lighter step to their walk (and how we males love it!).

A Lazy Mood . . .

But personally, I think it is the ideal time to lounge on a hammock strung up between two maple trees and quietly contemplate my various sins and the ungainly proportions of my anatomy including the navel. And the only thing on my mind would be the necessity of warding off the stray dogs and cats who sometime find it necessary to salute the maple trees which I grant is quite an ideal if not an orthodox place.

I think that some of us who live in the city miss out on the emotion of spring. The air is just as smoggy and dirty, and the only things that are green are the moth eaten trees and lawns that line some of the streets. The only saving grace is the sense of feeling and lots of imagination. In other words, you've got to be able to conjure up a hell of a daydream!

Gentle Passion . . .

The worn-out adage about spring being a time when a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love, I think is quite old fashioned and strictly for the ones who need an excuse. Love is an all-year around project unfettered by the convention of seasons.

Japan Missionary On Tour Of Canada, Studied Music

By TED OTSU

VANCOUVER, B. C. — There is one Japanese who has just set foot on North American soil who thinks that General MacArthur has done wonderful work in her native land.

Miss Hana Fukuda, United Church missionary, who is visiting Vancouver, on her tour of Canadian cities, was on board ship en route from Japan to the U.S. when she heard the news about MacArthur's dismissal.

"He was respected and liked," Miss Fukuda said here. "He understood the high quality of Oriental people and he has done wonderful work. The Japanese would have liked to have given him a real send-off to show their appreciation."

Miss Fukuda, has addressed a number of United Church groups during her stay here and will visit the interior of B. C. on her way to Eastern Canada. She had studied at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto under a scholarship from the United Church Training School, and had returned to Japan after graduation several years ago.

After a speaking tour of Canada which will take until September, she will study as a scholarship student in music at San Diego State College, California.

"Women University students in Japan are more alert and freer now but for the woman in the home there has been little change." "The family relationship at home has to be democratized. The Christian conception of home life will change the relationship. That's where the missionary can help," she said.

Miss Fukuda said there was a shortage of missionary leaders in Japan. They needed the leadership training for women and teen-agers and although the church is weak yet, it is concentrating on youth work.

Miss Fukuda specializes in teaching music in schools and also has been doing radio work. Her small radio group broadcasts on the school hour in the interest of musical education for the public. In Tokyo the Young People's Symphony Orchestra gives free concerts for students once a month. Miss Fukuda is on the executive committee of the sponsoring Association, representing 180 schools.

Vancouver Apartment Barred to Chinese

VANCOUVER — A city-owned apartment was refused by a lands and rentals department official to prospective tenants, a Chinese Canadian couple, because of their race.

In refusing to rent a self-contained suite on Beach Avenue, F. S. Grey of the lands and rentals department said that they might be incompatible to the other tenants of the block. For that reason, the Wongs were told, they could not have the apartment.

Grey was reported to have said that he thought other couples would object to them because they would have to share the backyard and the beach with them. "It would have been going against our better judgment to have exposed the Chinese family to criticism from other families," he said.

George Wong who was born in Vancouver is a veteran of World War II.

Aoki Re-elected As Alberta JCCA Maps Out Busy Year

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — "Deeds, not words" became the slogan for Alberta JCCA's Fourth Provincial Conference's "Blueprint for '51" when 60 hard-working and determined official and observer delegates from Taber, Lethbridge, Lethbridge North, Coaldale, Edmonton, Raymond and Calgary, met in the Conference Room of Lethbridge's Marquis Hotel on April 14 and 15.

A succession of resolutions covering immigration, farmers' co-operative, fair employment practices act, cultural exhibitions, social welfare and publicity resulted from the series of committee sessions set up to discuss the many phases of the JCCA work. From the executive slate of 12 elected by mail ballot, the Conference re-elected Ted T. Aoki to the Alberta presidency. The provincial budget calling for $1,825 including $600 national assessment, for the fiscal year 1951-52 was adopted.

The Conference was highlighted by a Conference Testimonial Banquet at which time the gold JCCA award pins were presented. Vice-Mayor Edward Castles and Mr. James Archibald of the Department of Agriculture were special guests at the dinner.

The Conference Dance, like the Banquet, was held at the Marquis Hotel and drew a large number of delegates and their friends.

In 'blueprinting for '51', six working committees were set up under a separate chairmanship: economic welfare, Bob Nishikawa; social welfare, Walter Koyanagi; political action, Munco Takeda; publicity committee, Roy Oshiro; education and cultural committee, Kyoto Shigehiro; and recreation committee, Ed Takahashi. Conference resolutions resulted from these committee sessions.

The Conference endorsed unanimously

ABOUT-FACE OF POLICY

Joint Senate-House hearings on immigration and naturalization bills were recently concluded in Washington. Lack of opposition to those provisions of the bills which calls for the elimination of racial distinctions in these laws has been a feature of the committee sittings. Representatives of numerous organizations have testified before the special committee yet there was not one speaker in opposition to the removal of racial discrimination in immigration and naturalization as these measures would provide.

Two of the last groups to appear before the committee and add their approval were the American Legion and the American Federation of Labor. This is an about-face for these veterans and labor bodies for a quarter of a century back both groups were active in a successful drive to bring about the Oriental Exclusion Act of 1924, and continued that stand in the subsequent periods up until World War II.

These two powerful bodies, like so many others, have come to the only logical realization that statutes which foster the concept that one race is superior or preferred to another are contrary to the basic principles of democracy. Moreover such laws, they are finding, provide a ready fuel with which to bank anti-democratic propaganda.

In other words, one cannot subscribe to one policy and honestly practice another.

THE 2-CENT STAMP

Club executives, particularly the treasurer and the secretary, know what is implied by the 2-cent stamp. Under the new postal regulations governing second-class mail, notices, invitations, reports and other carbon-copied, mimeographed or printed matter sent out by organizations must have affixed on it a minimum of two cents. Up to now a one-cent stamp sufficed.

Suppose a club sent out a hundred notices twice a month. That means postal costs for notices come to 48 dollars annually.

Now that's a lot of money for an organization that has only a hundred members. It's a lot of money to most organizations, ask any treasurer or ex-treasurer as to how these expenditures cut into club funds.

There's a very practical way to overcome this. Make more use of your newspaper. Instead of sending out notices of meetings or social events through the mail why not make it a habit of having it printed in The New Canadian. It will mean a saving to the club. It will also cut out the need of stencilling, mimeographing, folding, addressing and stamping which takes up a great deal of the executives' time.

There's one thing to be remembered. Please get it to us in good time.

PASSING THRU

The stimulus of a provocative pair of female unmentionables waving exotically and joyfully and uninhibitedly in the breeze is enough to make today's young man's fancy turn to thoughts of love. Spring, I'm afraid, therefore, has very little to do with the whole affair.

Thrilling Trilling?

Spring has often been linked to the thrilling trilling of a symphony orchestra before the overture. To bring it down from the highbrow idiom, I think it can better be compared to the happy music of a Dixieland band. Another thought (unpleasant) comes to mind: If Spring Comes, can Summer be far behind?

Spring must have intoxicated me to bring me to this highly idealistic and philosophical state of mind. Could it have been the trim pair of ankles I was leering at this morning on the street car? However it's a feeling that's easy to get when thoughts of a lazy, somnolent lounging on a hammock seem very fascinating and desirable.

1951 CENSUS TO COVER CAN. FISHING INDUSTRY

A phase of the 1951 census which will concern a number of Japanese Canadians will be that affecting commercial fisheries.

The first stage will be conducted in conjunction with the ten-year population census in June. The second will be carried out about October when fishing operations are at a minimum. Previously, fishermen have been included, like everyone else in the population census, but their operations have not been specially surveyed as have those of farmers and others engaged in agriculture.

The main purpose of the census of the fisheries is to obtain information about the fishermen and their community. This information will provide an adequate guide in assessing factors affecting the development of the industry and the life of fishermen. It will be of particular interest to the federal Department of Fisheries, especially in relation to its work with the Fisheries Prices Support Board.

The first part of the census, to be held in conjunction with the population census in June, will request information from the commercial fishermen concerning the number of days spent in fishing in the previous 12 months; whether fishing on their own account, as a partner or on shares or for wages, and within which of four income-size groups their income from fishing falls.

Fishermen are asked to have the necessary information available before the arrival of the census takers. If they expect to be away from their homes when the census takers arrive the fishermen are requested to leave the information with their wives or other responsible persons in the home.

For the purposes of the survey, a "commercial fisherman" is defined as any person engaged in catching or carrying fish, having earned wages, sold fish, or shared in the catch, who during the period of June 1, 1950, to May 31, 1951, fished for at least 15 days or earned at least $100 from fishing. This means a fisherman who earned $100 or more in less than 15 days fishing, or who worked for 15 days or more for less than $100, will be included in the list of commercial fishermen.

In the second part of the census, a questionnaire will be distributed to fishermen, which will ask for details of vessels and equipment used, kinds of fish taken, expenses of operation, and other items that form part of the overall economic picture of the fisheries in relation to the fisherman.

Information released at all stages of the census, it is emphasized by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, will be treated as confidential and handled with the utmost secrecy in respect of individuals. Only the result of the tabulations, i.e. totals, will be published or made available to other departments of government and the general public. Such information will be shown only in groupings that will not disclose details of any individual's operations or circumstances.

Odd Jobs Keeping Japan Violinist

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Miss Mariko Iwamoto, one of Japan's finest violinists, is living in New York on odd jobs and sheer nerve. The 25-year-old girl and her 210-year-old violin came to America in April, 1950, and the Japanese artist was met with rave notices at her concert at Town Hall on June 14.

But her success story flopped backwards and she received no further engagements. She retired to live in a dismal section of New York where she baby sits and acts as an interpreter at Columbia University to earn enough money for violin lessons. Mariko wants to show Americans she can play and also enough money to return to Japan.

Mariko is known as one of Japan's favorite music prodigies. She played with the Tokyo Symphony Orchestra at 14 and was made a full professor at Tokyo Music Academy when she was 20.

The Limit Is 200

People, says our budget expert (remember her?), make the mistake of believing that it takes money to find entertainment and enjoyment. She claims she can find cheaper substitute for any form of paid amusement. This is how she beats the leaping cost of survival.

Why go to shows and plays? You can find crime, comedy, pathos, tragedy, and all the elements of drama in a police court where they don't even charge amusement tax. If you want to see human emotion, both sorrow and happiness, go to the railway station.

Don't buy newspapers or magazines. Go to the reading room of your public library. To keep up with the latest there are bulletin boards with flash news in front of newspaper buildings. They have inning-by-inning baseball scores.

For political stuff, city council or provincial legislature sessions are open to the public.

Bowling? Public parks provide other recreation: checkers, horseshoe pitching, tennis courts, wading pools, swings. Sometimes even band concerts.

Miscellaneous forms of amusement: window shopping (Sundays only), museums, art galleries, standing on busy intersections at 5 p.m., construction, drivers' arguments.

Tips: find friends who have parties, television, record collection, latest model car and Chinese checkboard.

Gold Pins Awarded At Confab Banquet

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Local chapters of the Alberta JCCA availed themselves of the Conference Banquet held at the Marquis Hotel Banquet Room on April 14 to present gold JCCA pins, symbols of unselfish service to the JCCA movement, to members of their chapters.

Recipients were as follows:

Lethbridge JCCA: Minoru Takeda, Bob Nishikawa.

Coaldale JCCA: George Iiga, Seisuke Nuruke, Yosuke Oseki, Sotojiro Takada.

Taber JCCA: Fusakichi Fujimagari, Yajiro Yamagishi, Walter Koyanagi, Nobuo Teshima, Akisaburo Sato, Ted T. Aoki.

Mr. Yuki Tomiyama, representing the local chapters offered a toast to the recipients. Replying on behalf of the recipients, Mr. S. Aoki, complimented the vigorous activity of the Alberta JCCA and noted the tremendous change of organization between the first organizational meeting held in 1942 and the present Conference. He stated that the 1942 meeting was held in secret on a farm as meetings were forbidden at the time.

Attending the Banquet were Vice-Mayor and Mrs. Edward Castles and Mr. James G. Archibald, of the Department of Agriculture, and Mrs. Archibald. Mr. Castles gave official welcome to the delegates on behalf of the City of Lethbridge and extended his best wishes to the conference.

Mr. Archibald stated, "Since 1942, I have been engaged in agricultural work in Lethbridge and have been working with the Japanese Canadian people in Southern Alberta. I have found these people to be intelligent and co-operative farmers who are doing their best to make Alberta what it is noted for, a good province to live in, one of the best in Canada."

Speaking on marketing, he stated, "Disorganized selling and flooding of markets have put prices of potatoes down to a very low level. The Alberta growers have realized this year the need to organize. I hope that the new movement to organize the farmers will materialize successfully."

何をしに來てゐるのか、と尋ねられると、答へずに守屋恭吾は微笑する。

「海際の殺風景な神戸の町を見てゐるよりは、残つた京都を見てゐる方が、樂しいし頭が休まるからね。」

よく外を歩きに出て、郊外に在る古い寺などを見に行つてゐるやうだつた。海外からの歸還者とわかつてゐるが、家族の話をしたことがなく、誰か連れがあつて來たこともなかつた。

戦争が人の運命に様々に不幸な影を投げた後だけに、

「奥さん、お死にやしたんどつしやろか。」

と、女たちが疑問にしたこともあつた。客の人柄を見るのに慣れた目にも、恭吾に在る孤獨の影がビンに白いものの見える年齢のせゐだけのもののやうには感じられなかつた。

外に出ない時は、二階にひとりでゐて縁側の籐イスに掛けて本を讀んでゐるか、別段に面白いこともない筈の下の河原や、向う河岸を見て、おつとしてゐる。

「しんき臭うおつしやろねえ、どつこもお行きやへんのどすか。」

「暑いからね。」

と、振り向いて笑つて、

「これに退屈はしてゐない。かうやつて、ぼんやりしてゐるのが好きなのだ。」

京都に遊びに來たら、かうしてゐるのが本當だろう、と問ひ返してゐるやうな明るい調子であつた。

不思議な饗應（一）

角 如竹

汽車が大きくカーブを切ったものか、今まで全く見えなかった月が車窓の真中へ現われて來た。十五夜には少し間のある大きな月である、その光りも空に入っているだけに冴々とした鋭い光りを放っていた。

「失禮ですが、もしやあなたは『夜の水派』の作者、綿達也という人とは緣故でおありでないでしょうか……？」

とつさの事とて私は警戒しすぐさま言葉も出なかった。

妻が讀む婦人雜誌を私は退屈なときに、口繪ぐらゐしか見ないので、あるいはそんなのが載っていたかと思うぐらゐで、著者と同姓だという以外に大した關心もなかった。

「そうですか、確かに同姓ですね、戰後、郷里の若い人達の消息もくわしくないんですが！」

會話はこれで杜切れて、氣まずい空氣となったが、あえて話の緒口をみつけ出さうとする努力もせず、下車するタイムの迫るままに、オーバーを着るに馴れ／＼しく手をかして貰い、どこまでも日本婦人だというこまかな心盡しを暖かくうけた。

この婦人はクベック市を離れる三十數マイルの鑛山キャンプのコックとして住み込んでいることはわかったが、一夜遊びに來て下さいとつけ加えられた。それから一週間後その婦人から『夜の水派』という短篇の通俗的な小説を送って貰った、それに對して私はお禮の手紙どころか、安着の報せまで失禮するといふありさまだった。

年もあけたある日のこと、イートン百貨店の美術品部に掲げてある最近の名畫を見にいった、別段、大した印象もうけずそこを出たときには、街は夕闇につつまれて、ネオンが輝いていた。向うから來る二人連れの日本人とすれ違わうとした際、

あまり急に話しかけられたので、私はけげんな面持ちで返事もでなかった。

「ああ、そう／＼」

私は申譯も立たないと思うぐらゐに大きく笑って答えた。婦人の紹介で連れの男が柴山だということが判った。お互に手をさしのべて握手をおえると、彼は私の戰前の住所や仕事の事などに就て詳細にきだそうとした。私も不審がりながらも素直にこれに答えた。

柴山はタキシーを呼びとめて私を中央にはさんで支那人街へと運轉手に命令した。

婦人は「ふしぎな因緣ですわ、ビーシー州でお會いできなかったのが、こうしてこちらでお會いできるなんて……」と夫君にまなざしを向けると彼は「うん……」といって煙草の煙をふかく吸いこんだ氣配を私は感じた。

前年の倍ぐらいか

ビーシー沿海で就漁する日系漁者

西海岸のトローリングにも

尚本年度は西海岸のスプリング鮭トローリング漁に進出する日系も相當數に達する模樣であり北方行き漁者は續々漁場に向いつつある。又五月一日から始まるハリバット漁にも多數が出漁する樣子で一同非常に意氣込んでいる。(オー生)

日本移民に有望地

(質問一)こうした人形を買うときには、顏つきの好惡で判斷の基準があるのですか。

私は人形にのこの近づかないで、全体の性格を遠くからうけとることにしています顏は大切ですけれども一部分にすぎません。このメキシコの親爺さんを例にとりますと胸が上つていて瘦せぎすの脚でつつ立つている性格がいかにも氣にいつたからで、顏にはまつたく注意をはらいませんでした。

(質問二)現代には機械の發達ということがありますこうした手製の民藝品は、それによつて發達する未來があるのではないでしょうか。

あなたの言われるとおりだと思います。不便で時間のかかる方法にとぢこもる必要はないので、便利な機械による加工は不可避でもあり發達をもたらすにちがいありません

ただ、厄介な問題なのは、機械の發達が、均一主義の大量生産によつて金儲をあげるという意志によつて動かされることなのです。それでは、こうした人形にこめられた生命は再製されることもできねば發注させることもできず、かえつて殺されてしまうのです。

(質問三)これらの人形は不思議なほどに美しい色彩の配合や調和をもつていると思いますが、製作した人たちはそうした方法をどうして學んだのでしょうか、自然や環境から學んだのでしょうか。

すばらしいところに注目されたと思います。製作者たちは學校教育とは無緣なので、こうでもないああでもないと眞實に近づく努力を重ねてから、こうした表現にたどりついているのです。

120 Shuttlists Vie For Seven Titles In Week - Long Open

Over 120 hopefuls gunning for the seven available titles in the sports extravaganza of the spring, the Nisei Open Shuttle Tourney, started on the week-long weeding process which will end on Sat., April 28 at the Metropolitan United Church Gym under chairman Mi Akiyama and tourney manager Johnny Miura.

The first upset occured when Roy Shin, pre-tourney favorite, became a first-round casualty when he went down two straight to Tom Matsui. Tom bowed out to elder brother Matt but not without a terrific struggle. Ironically enough, Matt will meet brother Frank in the lower semi-final bracket. Tad Miura, up and coming shuttlist, ousted Kitchener's veteran Mas Toyota in a 3-set match but bowed to Frank Matsui.

In the upper bracket, Johnny Tanaka, finalist of last year, managed a win over Junji Ikeno through superior stamina. Ron Matsumoto gave Kitchener's Kitch Toyota a fright of his life by taking the middle set but in so doing, exhausted himself. Toyota rose to the heights to overcome Jimmy Kumagai's stout bid in another 3-setter but went down to Tanaka 17-16, 15-12, when "JT" pulled out every shot in his bag of tricks.

MEN'S DOUBLES

Roy Shin teamed up with Michi Ashikawa to record the first upset in the men's doubles at the Metro Gym when in the best match of the day, featuring rapier-like thrusts by both teams, lost the first game 16-18 to the Toyota brothers, seeded third. Then Roy unleashed his terrific smashes for an unheard of 15-0 win. Still blasting, they took the third 15-9 to advance into the semis.

The spectators almost stopped breathing at the final set of the Henry Shiji-Jimmy Kumagai vs. Tom Matsui-Yosh Tonogai match. With the score tied 17-17, Matsui and Tonogai let the bird fall between them in the dramatic split second in which victory turned into defeat when the bird could have been hit for a game-ending smash. Matsui then hit his serve into the net to drop the match. The winners will meet Frank Matsui and Johnny Tanaka, defending champs.

Scotty Amemori-Tosh Bando advanced into the third round with 18-16, 15-5 wins over Ron Matsumoto-Nick Kaji.

On Friday, the Londoners will make an appearance. Tats Harada will partner Johnny Nagata of London. Fourth-seeded in the ladies, Katie Yoshida and Mary Nagata will also see action.

LADIES DOUBLES

A few opening matches were recorded in ladies doubles. Defending champs Kay Ogaki and Chiz Fukusaka were the first team to make the semi-finals. Rose Ito-Kay Horiuchi of Metro beat Sue Iwasaki-Terry Fujioka in a 3-set struggle in which the last game went to 17-16.

In the men's and ladies doubles of the "B" section, Andy Yagi-Mickey Matsubayashi, AYPA combo, eked out a deuced third game against Geo. Takeda-Ken Kuwabara of Metro. Mary Yamasaki-May Horiuchi downed Emy Nakai-Miye Sugamori in a match that went the limit.

Tourney Finals, Dance Slated For Weekend

The finest in Nisei badminton, according to tourney chairman Mi Akiyama, will be on display when the finals will be staged at the Metropolitan Gym, corner of Bond and Shuter Sts., Toronto, on Sat., April 2., from 6:30 p.m. A public dance will follow.

Bodybuilders' Meeting

A meeting will be held tonight, Wed., April 25, at 2½ Grange Ave., Toronto, to form a club for bodybuilders. Even if you have never touched a barbell in your life, you are welcome as the object of the club will be to encourage and assist those interested in taking up bodybuilding with weights. It will also enable Nisei bodybuilders scattered throughout the city to become acquainted with each other. Better health, physical appearance and strength can be yours. Other last week results were Takeda 7, Sora 0; Moonlite 4, Sammy's 3; Spadina 7, Best 0; Seabreeze 7, El Mocambo 0.

nimously the report of the political action committee which asked the federal government to implement legislation which would abolish discrimination in its immigration policy. As a new twist in the immigration question, Coaldale JCCA introduced a resolution asking that steps be taken to assist residents of the island of Okinawa, now under U.S. jurisdiction, to immigrate to Canada.

Grave concern of the economic plight of the Japanese vegetable farmers resulted in the conference agreeing to assist to the fullest, the movement already under way to organize a potato growers' co-operative.

The delegates also decided to assist every movement in the legislative enactment of a fair employment practices act.

A resolution submitted by the education and cultural committee urged the local chapters to undertake cultural and art exhibitions in co-operation with local community organizations.

JCCA PUBLICATION

Fully realizing the importance of publicity, the Conference saw the need of an official Alberta JCCA publication to inform the members at large of the activities of the JCCA. The social welfare committee's report urged [illegible] of the members on hospitalization and [illegible] benefit [illegible] health and other related matters.

On recreation, the committee report urged the synchronization of various recreational and social activities of the chapters and clubs in Alberta.

Of the provincial budget of $1,825, local chapter assesment is as follows: Edmonton $55, Coaldale $175, Lethbridge North $150, Lethbridge City $80 (with reservations), Raymond $275 and Taber $350. The difference, $750, is to be met by a financial campaign.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

In concluding the Conference President-elect Aoki said, "The Niseis are definitely on the march. With matured minds, with greater self-confidence and with added courage, they are taking bolder steps in the constructive and progressive work of the JCCA. The all-Nisei delegations that assembled in Lethbridge have laid out a sound and concrete blueprint for the work of the Alberta JCCA for the forthcoming year."

Other members of the Alberta JCCA executive are: Bob Nishikawa, Lethbridge, first vice-president; Kyoto Shigehiro, Barnwell, second vice president and educational and cultural director; Yuki Tomiyama, Taber, treasurer; Tucker Hironaka, Raymond, recording secretary; Roy Oshiro, Coaldale, recreational director; Tak Oga, Picture Butte, publicity director.

AYPA Group Meets April 27 Plans Issei - Nisei Night

With the close of the term drawing near, a good turn-out is hoped for at the next meeting of the Toronto Nisei AYPA on Friday, April 27, at St. George's Hall. Meeting time is 8:00. Coming up for discussion will be the topic of a wind-up social or banquet to end the year's activities on a festive note.

There will be a city-wide Rally of AYPA groups on April 28, at St. John's Church on Norway. Members of the Nisei branch interested in attending are asked to speak to Pres. Tony Katsuno for details. Phone GR. 7783. The Rally is scheduled to begin in the afternoon, followed by a banquet and interesting programme in the evening.

A very successful Snack-Box Social was held at the last meeting of the AYPA on April 13. The bidding exceeded fondest expectations and the contents of the boxes fulfilled wildest hopes. To top off the evening, an unexpected visitor was present, Paul Higaki, well-known Nisei trombonist in Lionel Hampton's Orchestra, which enjoyed a highly lauded one-week sojourn in the city at that time. Mr. Higaki's informal visit resulted from a conversation with some members following the previous night's last performance when he professed an interest in Young People's Groups.

Members took this opportunity to inquire into the life of a musician, and chat about Nisei customs south of the border.

May 12 has definitely been decided upon as the date for the Issei-Nisei Guest Night to be held by the AYPA. The evening will commence at 7:30, at St. George's Parish Hall, and all Issei members of the Anglican congregation are cordially invited to attend, as well as other friends of the AYPA. Included in the programme will be a film on the Ghost towns following Evacuation, a nostalgic reminder of the past. Members are also preparing a musical programme which is rumoured to be most entertaining. A full evening of fun and good fellowship is anticipated for all.
